1948 Building To Top Record

Edmonton's potential home building program for 1948 is estimated to run as high as $2,250,000 and the construction of 1,300 houses, according to a preliminary survey made by The Edmonton Bulletin Tuesday.

NEGOTIATIONS are proceeding between Dominion Housing officials and city contractors under which the local builders are preparing for an integrated home building program of at least 500 homes. This project, if agreement can be reached with Dominion authorities, will total approximately $2,250,000.

A program of 120 houses by builders is already assured in the recent opening of the city's building program with the average cost of these homes estimated at $700 each. The city commissioners have approved the program.

Purchasers made through the city's department through the 700 homes would indicate a private building program of approximately 300 houses at an average cost of $1,000.

Negotiations are underway also between the City of Edmonton and Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation, a Crown-owned body, for the erection of wartime homes here. The city commissioners have approved the program.

Even With Marshall Aid Cripps Sees Hard Fight Ahead for Gt. Britain

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(CP)—Britain must not count on aid under the Marshall plan, Sir Stafford Cripps said today, but he added that "we shall be in a grave position" without it.

TELLING his fortnightly press conference that despite the country's best efforts there will be a dollar deficit of $2,000,000,000 ($2,000,000,000) during 1948, the chairman of the exchequer said that austerity Britain, without United States aid, would be forced to reduce still further imports of food and raw materials from the west.

"We should enter upon a declining spiral of fewer imports, materials leading to lower production and smaller exports, these in turn leading to still lower imports and so on."

"Without assistance as far as the dollar shortage is concerned, we shall be in a grave position."

Construction of the $100,000 tuberculosis sanitarium on the University of Alberta campus will start in the spring, it was announced today by the university's health officer.

Calls for tender will be issued in the very near future.

Six Injured, Damage Heavy

MONTREAL, Jan. 7.—(CP)—Two early-morning explosions today leveled a two-story gas works building at the Montreal locomotive works in the city's east end and sent six men to hospital, one in serious condition.

Rumor Price Ceilings May Be Reimposed

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—(CP)—As the price ceiling price of a multitude of foods tightened around the Canadian household budget, this capital was humming yesterday with rumors of new price ceilings and relaxations of import controls.

BUT ALL OF THEM went without official confirmation as the government kept secret any plans it might have for bringing down the rocketing costs of meats, butter and other staples.

However, official reports made it clear that the government is considering the possibility of reimposing price ceilings on a number of commodities.

Boast Corporation Levy

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—(AP)—President Truman today asked the United States Congress to vote every individual taxpayer an immediate $40 tax cut for himself and each dependent and to raise corporate taxes by $3,200,000,000 to offset it.

HE THUS LAID the groundwork for another tax battle with the Republicans-controlled House of Representatives and Senate in an address to the state of the union on the second day of the 1948 session.

Truman labelled his recommendation a "cost-of-living" credit designed primarily to relieve the small taxpayer.

The recommendation was sharply opposed by a Republican-sponsored $5,000,000,000 tax-cutting measure to give income tax payers percentage

Says CBC Broadcasts Type of Communism

CALGARY, Jan. 7.—(CP)—Charging that programs on the CBC are "the most subtle type of Communism disguised as news," Hon. W. A. Fallick, Alberta minister of public works attacked the controlling powers of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation here today at the annual convention of the Prairie Broadcasters' section of the Canadian Communication Association.

"NO ONE CAN say one single word on a CBC-controlled radio," Fallick said, "without the script being submitted to the planners to be carefully screened." Fallick said, "I must be read word for word, or else trained operators will quickly turn a knob and cut you off."

Private radio stations are slowly being pushed into a corner by the CBC, the minister said. "Private controlled radio is concerned, is a thing of the past."

He said information going out over the airwaves was screened in such a manner that public opinion was molded subconsciously.

"We are slowly being shoved into a straitjacket. When the operation is completed we will be as free as a Brazilian monkey on a political cage. We will be free to be as free as any prisoner desires."

"THE PLANNERS who are laying this straitjacket have as their objective complete control of all propaganda agencies. They want complete control of the means by which men and women are kept in the dark. They want complete control of the means by which men and women are kept in the dark."

Fallick said this operation of complete control must be of a controlling nature, "or else it will do us no good."

"We must put the blame for this situation on ourselves. We must put the blame for this situation on ourselves."

"THE MINISTER not only directed his attack on radio, but on the motion picture industry. He attacked the motion picture industry."

Mine Workers Want Wage Demands Settled

CALGARY, Jan. 7.—(CP)—Alberta mine operators requested clarification and justification of wage and welfare fund demands of district 15, United Mine Workers of America, at a meeting here yesterday.

A second meeting will be held today when the union's policy committee will submit an answer to the operators. Mr. Justice C. H. Brown is acting as conciliator at the meeting.

Operators said the limited request of district 15 was stated without and without application. Until these have been clarified the operators could only consider the matter in general terms. The union demands include wage increases of $3 a day for inside and outside workers and a seven-cent a ton increase in the welfare fund.

The union request was presented by D. C. Curran, miners' representative. He said the union was not asking for a wage increase of $3 a day, but for a 10 per cent increase in the welfare fund.

The welfare fund contribution now stands at three cents a ton. The union is asking for a 10 per cent increase in the welfare fund.

Comet Invisible

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Jan. 7.—(CP)—A new comet which swept across the sky when it appeared over the Arctic and America is falling fast and will not show itself in the naked eyes of northerners, the Harvard Observatory announced yesterday. Still far in the southern hemisphere, the comet will be observable by telescopic instruments but not for many more months.

More reports swirled about the question of impending action on fresh vegetable prices which have been shooting skyward as the winter months close in.

A well-informed Prices Board source said he doubted the possibility of a major price increase in vegetables. The board has been studying the situation and has not yet decided on a course of action.

There was no doubt the government would move to augment supplies if an emergency arose. The board has been studying the situation and has not yet decided on a course of action.

Deal Is Denied

LONDON, Jan. 7.—(CP)—The British Overseas Airways Corporation today denied press reports that it had entered into negotiations with Canadian Limited, a Canadian aircraft manufacturing company, for the supply of aircraft for its overseas routes.

The corporation issued a statement that it had in the normal course of business closely examined all available types of aircraft and had decided to purchase the Comet 4, which was the only aircraft that met its requirements.

The corporation said it had decided to purchase the Comet 4, which was the only aircraft that met its requirements.

Things to Come

I have recently been reading in an old copy of the Reader's Digest that man's legs are getting shorter all the time.

The doctor who made this discovery says it is because of the Automobile Age. We are all riding around with our legs tucked up under us. Sure enough, they're getting shorter.

If it keeps up this way, this fellow says we may eventually have no legs at all. Football games will be the furthest things you ever saw in all your life.

This isn't going to happen for several generations, of course. If it does, it will be at a price level that may never happen at all. But just the same, it's pretty dramatic proof of the way we're going.

In fact, life is becoming so mechanized these days that it's bound to have an effect on our bodies. If a fellow is lucky enough to have all the gadgets that are going around on the market he could probably have a pretty full life without losing a finger.

Indeed, it's quite possible that the legless men of the future will have finer legs than the legged men of today. They will have developed from pressing buttons. They may not be able to get off as we think, say this having attended a house party at the home of a well-heeled acquaintance.

New Year's Eve.

The fellow's home nearly everything is automatic. The whole house makes a faint, pulsating sound of high voltage.

A flick of a switch heats or cools the room, cooks the food, and dries the laundry and the dishes, does something about the garbage and makes tea or cream. The man of the house wakes in the morning in the sound of his alarm clock. It goes on automatically by itself. It really does.

The Blanket

My friend is understandably proud of his acquisitions (he already has a finger about the size of a cucumber) and I must confess I envy him. But in this twentieth-century home there was one gadget that was too much, "the" blanket, taking a brick place to a new radiator.

For what met my startled gaze was something called an automatic electric blanket with, so help me, a "built-in brain." As you sleep, the blanket explained, the brain adjusts the warmth of the coverlet to the temperature of the bed.

A blanket with a brain indicates to me that the inventor and the production wizards may finally revolutionize our lives, but they still wear their handicap. This handicap is the fact that there are a large number of citizens like me who are frightened to death of anything new, especially if it plugs in.

The kind of people who, in the 19th century, shuddered "Get a horse!" at passing Stanley Steamers, still exist and I am right with them.

Anything to do with electricity, for example, sends quivers coursing up and down my spine. Confronted with the reality of changing a fuse I show all the outward symptoms of a man about to be strangled in the electric chair. I am always gloomily convinced that the whole house will go "puff" and second rapidly in a flash of blue light when the current is put on.

When I was much younger I read somewhere that hundreds of people are electrocuted each year by flicking the bathroom switch while standing in their bath, wet feet, a fact that, early in life, I felt the tingling of electricity, and the mystery about the whole subject of electricity.

This kind of thing might easily retard the whole history of electronic progress.

Anything Goes

The automatic electric blanket with the built-in brain is the kind of thing that brings out this fear-nervousness. My friend, a man who is right at home with electrical energy, does not share my feelings.

He hops into bed, fiddles with the controls of this electronic blanket, has dual controls so that both he and his wife can fix together and spends a peaceful evening.

"Not if I were to climb into that thing I would feel consciously that here I was, under a network of wires pulsating with alternating current and just waiting until it

Major Moslem Attack Expected

NEW DELHI, Jan. 7.—(UPI)—The Indian military is stationed in Kashmir province are prepared for a possible Moslem attack on the state of a sharp hillside thrust at Nushera yesterday.

The sources said the thrust at Nushera, 40 miles northwest of Jammu, is expected to be a diversion to the main attack on Jammu. The main Indian army base there is at Nushera.

Moslem capture of Jammu would indicate Indian army in Kashmir, military power for some time in India, these sources said, paving the way for another Moslem thrust from the west through Pakistan.

Must Use Care

SASKATON, Jan. 7.—(UPI)—A warning that the chemical weed killer, 2,4-D, can injure grain crops in varying degrees unless applied at the right time, was given yesterday at the 13th annual meeting of the Saskatchewan branch of the Canadian Seed Growers' Association.

Leaves for Home

BATAVIA, Jan. 7.—(UPI)—Netherlands premier, Dr. Louis J. M. van Rooijen, left for home yesterday after three weeks of supervising conflict in the Netherlands East Indies.

Isolation Must End

Canada Must Develop Own Natural Resources

SASKATON, Jan. 7.—(UPI)—The Saskatchewan Agricultural Union has passed a resolution that it is "a disgrace that Canada is not a more developed country than it is."

The kind of people who, in the 19th century, shuddered "Get a horse!" at passing Stanley Steamers, still exist and I am right with them.

Anything to do with electricity, for example, sends quivers coursing up and down my spine. Crush Mounties 5-21

Saints Surge Into Tie For Senior Cage Lead

Returning to the cage court after a two-week layoff, Latter Day Saints moved into a first-place tie with Precision Machine in the City Senior Men's Basketball League last night, by romping through RCMP 5-21. Beavers chalked up their second triumph of the season, edging Trollers 37-33 in the first game of a two-play affair on the Mounties' floor.

Exchanging shots on a large floor, which appeared to give both contestants trouble adjusting themselves, the LDS quieted net little opposition from the first RCMP defeat. Stanching a 23-24 margin in the first half, the Saints came out bigger and better in the final, sinking the "Red Coats" with a top-sided 22-2 score.

TED BREWERTON was the spearhead for the Saints, flipping 12 points through the hoop, while B. Edwards ran fine, and Mark Davis and Grant Wheeler each contributed eight.

Grant Wheeler was again the spark for the losers, tallying a neat 11 of 11 points. Roy Grilling, center, second-place bowler, pushing five points into the mesh.

HARVEY ROBINSON and R. Pierce, leading the leather through the cage for 10 points, paced Beavers to their second win of the season.

Beavers were never behind last night, although they just managed to squeeze out a narrow 17-16 edge over the scrappy Trollers in the initial half. However, they put the cage "in the bag" in the final half, outscoring the "V" quiet 20-7.

Although he was on the losing side, it was no fault of Alf Savage as he came up with the game's best scoring punch, a sweet 12-point effort.

Highland Bantams Blank Cromdale

Highland bantams blanked Cromdale 4-0, and Bellevue edged out a close 3-2 victory over Oliver last night, as action continued on the Community League bantam hockey floor.

Mike Mahonick scored a brace of goals for Highlands, while Ed Bodnar and G. Hollands came up with singletons.

Plasterers, Perry Webb and Ardon Roberson, pulled the twice for one goal apiece for Bellevue, while Ron Henry and Stu Hall counted singles for the losers.

Honors for the triumph went to Bill Quilty, Bellevue goalie, who turned in a brilliant job between the pipes.

Lacombe Beaten 3-2

Edmonton's representatives in the Western Canada Senior Hockey League looked like winners all night long as they knocked the puck from under the leading Stampeder to the tune of 8-3.

$66,000 Housing Project Planned at Airport Here

50 Homes To Be Built

The Dominion department of national defence will launch a $66,000 housing program here to provide permanent quarters for RCAF personnel, if negotiations now proceeding with the city commissioners are ratified by city council.

Under the proposal the city would give title to the property on which the North West Air Command buildings now are located, and the department would erect the homes on this property, paying for their construction, the installation of sewer mains and laterals, and their upkeep, landscaping and other incidental.

The property to be turned over by the city is a triangular plot lying south of Kingsway between 112 and 113 streets and immediately north of 112 avenue. It is proposed to re-subdivide this property into 60-foot lots, and to erect 50 homes in the sub-division. It is understood this is the first of permanent structure projects contemplated for the airport.

TWO HOMES will cost approximately $8,000, exclusive of the regular services and landscaping which will be outstanding in architectural character.

While no announcement has been made officially it is understood that a similar project to that proposed in Edmonton will be carried out at the Namas airport.

Under the terms of the proposed transfer of land the Dominion project will be free from taxation, but an allowance for education services will be made to the school board authorities.

IF NEGOTIATIONS are finalized by the city council at its meeting next Monday, work on the project will commence immediately, and it is planned to have the 50 homes completed by July, or August.

Negotiations are being carried on by Colonel Colin Gibson, department of national defence, Ottawa, and Air Vice-Marshal K. M. Guthrie, C.B.E., officer commanding, North West Air Command.

IN EDMONTON Wednesday was Col. Basil Campbell, minister of national defence, who is conducting the negotiations here.

According to Col. Campbell, 60 more homes under the Claxton program are to be transferred to the city of permanent force army and air force personnel at the Suffield experimental establishment in southern Alberta.

THE CONTRACT for the Suffield project has been granted to Engineering Buildings Ltd., Edmonton, it was revealed today by Manager Jack Simpson.

Work on the project began the last week of December, the first of the 100 houses poured Monday of this week. The first house is expected to be delivered ready for occupancy about the middle of February. The 60-house project is expected to be completed by the end of June.

THE SUFFIELD project will consist of 100 six-room houses, 30 five-room houses, and 15 four-room houses, all with full bathrooms and four star-bathing units. The houses will be fully modern, complying to all N.W.A.C. standards.

Col. Campbell expressed great pleasure with the progress of the project and the co-operation he received from the city and the defence minister's program to Major Ainslie and the city commissioners. "It is the intention of the department to increase the percentage of co-operation to the city officials," said Col. Campbell.

It is hoped to be able to erect 100 houses a year across Canada for members of the permanent force under this plan. A contract has been granted for the construction of 100 houses at Rivers, Man.

Col. Campbell will go to Calgary from Edmonton, where he will survey the situation regarding the possible establishment of a similar building program in that city.

RECENT STRIKE troubles were heard from Thomas Shaw, 1225 Port Road, striking John Butcher, Edmonton, Burckard stated that the man called him a dirty scoundrel and then struck him on the face while near 100 street at 104 avenue.

Shaw said the trouble arose over his being out on strike recently while the accused was working at their place of business. Shaw was fined $20 and costs.

Two men charged with dangerous driving were fined $100 each and costs each while a taxi driver was fined $20 and costs and had his driver's license suspended for three months on a speeding charge.

Cross-Examination Trend Is Protested

Strong objection to the way cross-examination of witnesses is being conducted was voiced Wednesday by Chief Justice W. L. Howson, as the Royal Commission continued the inquiry into the administration of child welfare in Alberta.

G. H. STEER, K.C., counsel for the 1000 and child welfare expert Dr. Charlotte Whitton, was cross-examined "rayon, elite relief and child welfare department services in Edmonton when the chief justice intervened."

"Where are we going to stop with these witnesses? I see no reason why any person in Edmonton, Calgary or Lethbridge wishing to give evidence should be subjected to cross-examination by the chief justice intervened."

"I was a person coming to give evidence on child welfare and knew the court. We have opened the door to all who know and take all the time he requires."

AFTER OBSERVING that he appeared to be at cross purposes with the commission chairman, Mr. Steer said: "I am not suggesting for one moment that Mr. Howson is not telling the truth. My purpose in cross-examination has been for the sole purpose of showing how child welfare is administered in Alberta."

To which Chief Justice Howson replied:

"You have been told over and over again that you can go as far as you like and take as long as you like in your cross-examination. Mr. Steer appeared before the commission first on Tuesday and presented a brief, which he stressed contained his personal views on the subject of child welfare and not the official submissions of the City of Edmonton."

The chief justice told Mr. Steer that 12 neglected children are being kept in private homes and paid for by the city at an average of $20 or $25 per month per child in cases where special medical care may be required it might run to $20 or $25 per month for one child."

WITNESS THOUGHT that a home with up to five children constituted a "natural home." He added that while eight or nine children were being maintained in the one private home it was "different."

Mr. Steer doubled his membership of his child welfare staff ever taken courses in social welfare.

HE REITERATED his contention made on the stand Tuesday that human understanding and kindness were the primary qualifications for such work and admitted to cross-examination that he did not have an expert on child welfare "in any shape or form."

Mr. Steer questioned Mr. Howson at length with many individual cases dealt with by his department, in particular those pertaining to uncooperative mothers.

Witness described as "colored and inaccurate" a portion of the Whitton report describing conditions in the detention home, but admitted he did not approve of the place himself.

It had been utterly impossible to secure any other place for detention of juveniles at that time, Mr. Howson declared.

HE BRANDED as a lie a part of the report describing conditions in the Comstock shelter. This home had only been used as a temporary shelter and is now not being used.

Mr. Howson stated earlier in his testimony that he had "tried" 200 first offenders in the South Saskatchewan house in February, 1946. Witness promised to produce any records he might have for the commission.

CHIEF JUSTICE Howson at this point said he did not know until this morning the commission was going to investigate the City of Edmonton.

"We are not going to stop you in your cross-examination, but we are going to say that you have been told that no testimony will be considered by the commission unless it pertains to child welfare in Alberta," the chief justice warned.

Co-Ed Beauty Trials Out And Students Unhappy

Authorities of Western Canada universities may be "down" on varsity beauty contests, but the contest idea is still popular with undergrads.

THE EDMONTON BULLETIN Tuesday conducted a survey among local university students covering their views of this issue. Not only were they pointed in remarks regarding the official stand on such contests, but some co-ed gave The Bulletin cameraman opportunity to record again a sunny background a few bathing beauty scenes that do credit to Hollywood and the glamor of Atlantic City's boardwalk. "The results are seen above. But the beauty contests?" They're still on the table, said, according to available information.

Barbara Marianne Langille Wed at McDonald Church

Miss Hutton, decorated McDonald Church Thursday at 8:30 p.m. when Miss Barbara Marianne Langille, daughter of R. S. Langille of Edmonton, became the bride of Robert Douglas Whitley, son of Mrs. B. J. Robertson of Wainwright. The Rev. S. D. Trites performed the ceremony. Miss Shalen played the wedding music and Miss Cora Shalen sang through the years during the signing of the register.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of cut velvet with a fitted bodice styled with a round neckline and long sleeves. The full skirt terminated in a slight train. THURSDAY, Jan. 7.—The United Church here was the scene of a recent wedding when Miss Esther Martin Coombes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Coombes of Tofield, became the bride of Harry Latou, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Latou of Lloydminster. The Rev. H. H. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a gown of white satin with an embroidered floral design, her dress styled with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves tapering over the wrists. Her full-length veil was gathered to her head by a coronet of orange blossoms. Her only jewelry was a mother of pearl pendant and she carried a bouquet of red roses.

Phase One Now in Operation

Arabs' Holy Land Battle Plan To Develop in Three Phases

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON

JERUSALEM, Jan. 7.—(AP)—The supreme command of the Arab Allied forces (SACAF) has a three-phase operations plan to prevent the partition of Palestine and right now is about halfway through phase one, it was learned today from reliable sources.

A MILITARY scheme designed to "make it impossible for the United Nations to turn Palestine into Jewish and Arab states" has been devised in these three stages, sources said.

1. Eviction of the Jews from quarters where the Jews and Arabs have lived as neighbors.

2. Isolation of Jews of the north coastal plain and the southern desert by driving Arab wedge between them.

3. Final drives to exterminate or subjugate Jewish communities such as Tel Aviv, Jerusalem's Hehava, Haifa's Hadar HaCarmel and hundreds of Jewish villages and settlements.

For two weeks volunteer forces under the unified command, directed from Cairo, have been engaged in phase one.

ONE INFORMANT said "SACAF" at present is composed of six units in six cities. All are veteran warriors and all served in one way or another in the Arab Revolt of the late 1930s. At the top is Tahir Pasha Hashimi of Baghdad, one time war minister of Iraq and a relative of the kings of Iraq and Trans-Jordan. He is appointed supreme commander by the Arab League at a meeting in Lebanon last October.

NEXT IN RANK and highest with the combat forces is the Bey Al Kanki, leader of the Palestine Arab rebel forces in the fight of 1936-39. He fled to Iraq and through Turkey to down, and escaped to Palestine during the British cracked his Mufli.

Now he is the commander of the "Army of Yarmuk," a volunteer force forming in Iraq, with headquarters at Damascus.

On the next level are four district commanders in Palestine, the highest ranking of which is "The Bey" Abdul Aker by Haifa. He is in command of all the "peoples' armies" in the Jerusalem area and is likely to be chief of staff on the successful Tashki.

At Least They Could Bear It

If New York's record-breaking snowstorm brought temporary gain to Jews and to Manhattan's millions, it was decidedly to the taste of those who live in Brooklyn's Prospect Park Zoo, who are shown dispersing themselves as a result.
